Faithful Navigator's Column

Our next meeting will feature the vote on the slate of officers presented by the trustees for the next calendar year. Be sure to be at the meeting on May 22, if possible, to participate in the governing of your Assembly business.

Don't forget that we have a tabled motion to contribute $2000 to the VA hospital in Richmond for the families of wounded veterans visiting their loved, wounded vet while healing. This necessity comes from the fact that the Fisher House will not be completed in Richmond until sometime in 2008, and these contributions are an interim fix pending that completion.

The Annual convention was held in Virginia Beach last weekend, and was a great success by all accounts. The new slate of officers was a group of very capable individuals lead by Lenny Pulizzi who will serve as the State Deputy for the following year.

Hope to see you at the meeting May 22.

Vivat Jesus!

13 Rue de L'Amour at the Olney Theater, Olney, MD

Translated by: Mawby Green and Ed Feilbert
 Based on a play by: George Feydeau
 Directed by: John Going

Full of laughs and intrigue, 13 Rue de L'Amour is a wacky, door-slamming bedroom farce with a true lunatic spirit. A philandering husband, a wife set on revenge, a love-starved countess-concierge, befuddled policemen, a saucy maid, and other plotting parties find their way to the same address and frolic through a maze of mistaken identities and false arrests. Reminiscent of a good Marx Brothers movie, this comedy's illogical logic is sublimely ridiculous.

Olney Theatre Center for the Arts is located on Maryland Route 108 (Olney-Sandy Spring Road) in Olney, Maryland, one and one-half miles east of Georgia Avenue (Route 97) and two miles west of New Hampshire Avenue (Route 650). Parking is free.
